28. U. S. POSTAL SERVICE ENDORSEMENT
(Include date of mailing)INSTRUCTIONS

CLAIMANT — The claimant shall prepare Part I in connection with each claim for drawback of tax paid on tobacco products, cigarette papers, or cigarette tubes, and forward three copies of the executed forms to the Regional Director (Compliance), Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, for the region in which the articles are held, to request the assignment of an internal revenue officer. This form must be accompanied by a bond on Form 2146.

An ATF officer will inspect the articles, supervise the attachment of the required label on the packages, supervise the packing in shipping containers and release the shipping containers to the claimant. The claimant shall then execute Part II on all copies of the form and return them to the ATF officer who will execute Part III on all copies, retain one copy and furnish two copies to the claimant.

CUSTOMERS — Except for exportation through the U.S. Postal Service, the claimant will present these two copies of the form with the shipment to the customs officer at the port of exportation or at the foreign-trade zone, who will execute the appropriate certificate in Part IV, retain one copy for his records, and forward one copy to the Regional Director (Compliance), Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms shown in Part I.

POSTAL SERVICE — If the shipment is exported through the U.S. Postal Service, the claimant shall stamp or write on each shipping container a signed waiver of his right to withdraw the articles from the mails, present one copy of this form with the shipment to the Postal Service for the certificate in Part V, and transmit such copy to the Regional Director (Compliance), shown in Part I.

CLAIMANT — In addition to this form the claimant also is required to furnish the Regional Director (Compliance), Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms shown in Part I a landing certificate or other evidence as required by 27 CFR Part 280.
